Mr. Anthony Bergamo
Chairman
Federal Law Enforcement Foundation
270 West 45th Street
New York, NY 10036

Dear Tony:

In this age of terrorism, your Foundation's work is more vital than ever before. Caring for the families of those who defend us is truly noble work. Your friends in the business community are proud of the Foundation's positive impact on so many deserving people.

The Milstein Family is proud to support the Foundation and the great work you do on behalf of law enforcement.

I congratulate all the award recipients and you for the great work of the Foundation.

Sincerely,

Howard P. Milstein

Howard P. Milstein
Co-Chairman, President and CEO of Emigrant Savings Bank

Howard P. Milstein is Co-Chairman, President and CEO of Emigrant Savings Bank, the largest privately owned bank in the country. He previously served as Co-Vice Chairman of the Bank from 1987 until 1994, when he was elected Co-Chairman. He is a Managing Partner of Milstein Properties, an investment builder active in both residential and commercial development primarily in New York City, and founding President of the merchant bank FriedbergMilstein. He chairs MB Real Estate, a national commercial leasing and management company. In 1989, Mr. Milstein acquired Douglas Elliman-Gibbons & Ives, and served as its Chairman for ten years until it was sold. In 1986 he created Liberty Cable which was sold in 1996.

Mr. Milstein's civic and philanthropic service includes positions (among others) as: Chairman of both the New York Blood Center and the American Skin Association; Trustee Emeritus and Presidential Counsellor, Cornell University, and Overseer, Cornell Medical College. He is a Founding Member of The Cornell Club of New York. He is a member of the Cornell Investment Committee and Chairs its Real Estate Committee; he is also a member of the Advisory Board of the College of Arts and Sciences. Mr. Milstein is a Trustee of the Economic Club of New York and a member of the Confrerie des Chevaliers du Tastevin; he is on the Board of the UJA Federation and Chairs its New York Jewish Leadership Forum. He is an International Trustee of the Musical Arts Association of Cleveland. In Washington, DC, he serves on the National Board of the Smithsonian Institution, as well as on the Boards of the Corcoran Museum of Art and the Shakespeare Theatre. He supports many other philanthropies, including The New York Public Library and the American Jewish Committee.

Mr. Milstein received a B.A. in Economics summa cum laude from Cornell University in 1973, and earned Law and Business degrees from Harvard in 1977. He is a member of the Harvard Law School Visiting Committee, and of the Executive Committee of the Dean's Advisory Board.
